JUNE 2023

WORD AND WORSHIP

TAKING TIME TO PRAY

*“Never stop praying. Whatever happens, give thanks, because it is God’s will in Christ Jesus that you do this.”
1 Thessalonians 5:17-18*

It’s good to let prayer be the first thing you do in the morning and the last thing you do at night. Be on guard against false, deceitful thoughts that say, “Wait awhile, you can pray in an hour. First, you must finish this or that.” For with such thoughts, you turn away from prayer towards the business at hand, which surrounds you and holds you back so you never get around to praying that day.

Of course, some tasks are as good or better than prayer, especially during an emergency. Nevertheless, we should pray continually. Christ says to keep on asking, searching, and knocking (Luke 11:9-11). And Paul says that we should never stop praying (1 Thessalonians 5:17). Likewise, we should continually guard against sin and wrongdoing, which can’t happen if we don’t fear God and keep his commandments in mind at all times. In Psalm 1 we read, “Blessed is the person who...reflects on his teachings day and night” (Psalm 1:1-2).

We shouldn’t neglect the habit of true prayer and get caught up in necessary work—which usually isn’t all that necessary anyway. We can end up becoming lazy about prayer, cold towards it, and tired of it, but the devil doesn’t get lazy around us.

PRAYERS FOR STRENGTH AND HEALING

End of coronavirus

Our nation and People of Ukraine
Christians - return to the Bible
Roy Anders - recuperating from a stroke
Linda Wehmeyer - health concerns (but improving!)
Jerry Hahn - health concerns
Teri Klien, Daughter of Sharon Leriche, recovering from car accident

OUR ADOPTED MILITARY:

Nick Beagley (Bretscher)

CONTINUING HEALTH ISSUES:

Stan & Dorothy Barsky, Frances Bell, LeRoy & Fran Ettling, John Folkerts, Billy Lane, John Morgan, Jim Thomas

PRAYERS FOR OTHERS:

For the homeless in the Bridgeton area. For our missionaries who serve the Lord in foreign lands. For persecuted Christians around the world. For innocent civilians trying to survive in war-torn areas. Those who serve in our nation's armed forces and our Government leaders. For God's grace that we may have the desire to love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us.

"FEED THE HUNGRY"
